DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-16, as the claims relate to administration of a hedgehog agonist, drawn to methods of modulating lipid metabolism in an animal comprising the administration of a hedgehog agonist, classification dependent on the chemical nature of the agonist.
 - II. Claims 1-16, as the claims relate to administration of a hedgehog antagonist, drawn to methods of modulating lipid metabolism in an animal comprising the administration of a hedgehog antagonist, classification dependent on the chemical nature of the antagonist

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Although there are no provisions under the section for "Relationship of Inventions" in M.P.E.P. § 806.05 for inventive groups that are directed to different methods, restriction is deemed to be proper because these methods appear to constitute patentably distinct inventions for the following reasons: Groups I and II are directed to methods that are distinct both physically and functionally, and are not required one for the other. Group I requires a method of administering a hedgehog agonist whereas Group II requires the administration of a hedgehog antagonist.

Agonists and antagonists are structurally and functionally distinct molecules and methods utilizing an agonist necessarily require different starting materials and accomplish different goals - the use of one not being required for the use of the other. Further, although a search of methods involving hedgehog agonists might overlap a search of methods involving hedgehog antagonists, the two searches would not be coextensive and to search both would be unduly burdensome.

Therefore, because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and because a search and examination of all the groups in one patent application would result in an undue burden, since the searches for the groups are not co-extensive, the classification is different, and the subject matter is divergent, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Claims 4-9 and 12-16 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising methods of treating particular disorders, e.g. Andersen's disease, diet induced hypercholesterolemia, etc. Each species being that affecting a single identifiable patent population, i.e. having separate and distinct etiologies and/or symptoms. Thus, each species involves a patentably distinct method or composition, requiring differing materials, accomplishing divergent goals, the use of one not being required for the use of any other. Further, although the searches for each species may overlap, a search of one could not be counted on to provide art that is anticipatory or may render obvious that of any other, and to search all would be unduly burdensome. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Art Unit: 1649

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
